

Hello Summer Games athletes,

My name is Marty Scarano and I am the Director of Athletics at the University of New Hampshire. We are so proud to host the Special Olympics New Hampshire State Summer Games and are looking forward to another year in which we honor the spirit and dedication of the athletes who reflect the best of New Hampshire.

Like your coaches, our coaches have high expectations for their athletes. Each year we encourage the student athletes at UNH to demonstrate the courage, dedication and sportsmanship that you all show us at the Games every year. During the course of the year there are so many of our student athletes that share stories of inspiration from watching you all compete at the Summer Games. Thank you for being an inspiration for the athletes that we at the UNH Athletic Department serve.

We can't wait to see you back at the University of New Hampshire next year on June 1st and 2nd 2018.

We're cheering for you!
